9. REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT 1974 (EXCEPTIONS) ORDER 1975 (AMENDMENT) (ENGLAND AND WALES) ORDER 2020 & POLICE ACT 1997 – DISCLOSURE & BARRING CHECKS

Please give details of any convictions or charges outstanding of all offences (or alleged offences) including driving offences. If you inadvertently disclose a conviction, which is regarded as 'Spent' it will be ignored.

If the post you are applying for includes working with children or vulnerable adults (regulated activity) the post is classed as an exempt post under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and it will be subject to a Disclosure & Barring check (as noted on the Job Description). You must therefore disclose any convictions, bind-over orders, cautions or charges pending, whether current or spent. Failure to disclose this information is a criminal offence and could result in dismissal, disciplinary proceedings or rejection of your application.

Do you have any unspent conditional cautions or convictions under the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974?

Yes No

Yes No

If Yes to either above, please provide details, including dates, in a separate letter with your application form. A criminal record will not necessarily bar you from working for the Council. This will depend on the nature of the job and the circumstances and background of your offences.

Are you under any order, or awaiting a hearing, by the CIW, the EWC, or any other professional body?

Yes No

Isle of Anglesey County Council is committed to protecting and safeguarding the most vulnerable people in our community. Rigorous pre-employment checks are undertaken for all appointments as part of our recruitment and selection process.

If you fail to give us relevant information or give false information this may result in any offer of employment being withdrawn or if already in employment, disciplinary action and dismissal.

10. ASYLUM AND IMMIGRATION ACT 1996

Under the Immigration, Asylum and Nationality Act 2006 the Council has a responsibility to ensure that only those legally entitled to live and work in the United Kingdom are offered employment. In observing this Act you will need to produce documentation which confirms your entitlement.
