

IT'S and Its

Grammar

It's is a contraction of the words it is. If you prefer not to write it is, you would write it's

Its for possession. E.g. The dog lost its bone.

IT'S and Its

1. _____ about time you showed up!
2. It was _____ first time out of the cage.
3. _____ feet were covered with sand.
4. Get up, _____ time for school.
5. I'm glad to see you; _____ been a long time.
6. _____ important to study hard for tests.
7. The bear protected _____ cubs.
8. _____ my turn to go down the slide.

IT'S and Its

1. It's (It is) about time you showed up!
2. It was its first time out of the cage.
3. Its feet were covered with sand.
4. Get up, it's (it is) time for school.
5. I'm glad to see you; it's (it has) been a long time.
6. It's (it is) important to study hard for tests.
7. The bear protected its cubs.
8. It's (it is) my turn to go down the slide.